VOL. XIX.]

FRIDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 2, 1848.

[No. 5347.]

American Citizen. His career of glory through life was unstained by crime; and his death was felt as a loss by every individual of that community, whose political existence was the fruit of his exertions.

THE FAREWELL ADDRESS OF General Washington is the condensed result of long experience, matured reflection and strong anxiety for the permanent prosperity of his country. His advice concerning the great importance of maintaining indissolubly the Federal Union; the danger of indulging too much in party feelings; the necessity of supporting public credit at home;—of maintaining public faith in all our transactions, with foreign nations; of encouraging foreign intercourse free from foreign attachments;—are so many lessons of prudence which we should do well to bear in constant remembrance. Why therefore should not his legacy of wisdom and affection, be so published, as to admit of being constantly before our eyes? An ornament to our apartments, while it serves as a memento to guide our public feelings, and to manifest that the author lives in our memories?

To make it such, is the aim of the proposed Edition.

The Publishers are determined that the Address shall be printed on paper of the same quality and size as the splendid edition of the Declaration of Independence now engraving, & shall in all respects be a companion worthy that great State paper.

As errors are known from various causes to find their way into the most important writings, the publishers feel it their duty, not only to satisfy themselves, but to satisfy the public, of the authenticity of the copy from which this splendid Edition of the Farewell Address shall be published.

Mr. GEORGE BAIRD will complete the Design; of which the following is an outline:—The introductory part of the Address, in highly finished ornamental penmanship, shall form the upper part;—the other parts of the plate, shall be appropriate ornaments;—in the centre below shall be engraved, from an historical design for this publication by Mr. Sully the Surrender of the British Army at York-town, October 19, 1781.

The Address itself shall be printed with type of a peculiar and appropriate character, designed for this purpose by Mr. Fairman, and to be cut and cast by our best artists. No more of the type shall be cast than will be necessary to execute this Address; & when it shall be completed, the type and the matrices in which it was cast shall be utterly destroyed; so that no other work shall ever be executed by the same letter which shall have printed the "FAREWELL ADDRESS" of him who lived and died, first in War; first in Peace, and first in the hearts of his Countrymen.

The paper, of the first quality, 36 by 26 inches, will be made by Mr. Ames. The ink shall be carefully prepared, and of the best materials.

The signature of General Washington from which it is proposed to execute a fac simile for this publication, is that which he affixed to the Constitution of the United States, when he signed it as President of the Convention in which it was framed; Thus associating and concentrating some of the greatest events in the life of this great man and in the history of his Country.

The ornamental writing will be designed and executed in the very best manner; the ornamental parts of the design and vignette, will be engraved by G. FAIRMAN; and the Typographical part executed by John Pinn. They will take especial care of the execution of their several duties in this respect, and they will call to their aid, all that liberality, zeal and industry can command from the Sciences and Arts, so as to make the "Farewell Address" no mean specimen of the State of the Fine Arts in the United States.

As much progress has already been made in designing and procuring materials for this splendid edition of Gen. Washington's "Farewell Address," it is expected it will be ready for delivery, with the Splendid Edition of the Declaration of Independence, in the month of December next. That the public may have a more perfect view of the design and style of execution, than can be given in a proposal, of this Tribute to the memory of him who was "a Conqueror for the Freedom of his Country! A Legislator for its Security! A Magistrate for its Happiness," it is not intended to solicit any Subscriptions until the Ornamental parts of the plate shall be executed. It will then be submitted for public inspection and public patronage, at five dollars a Copy, payable on the delivery of the Engraving. Philadelphia, July 31.

For the information of all persons throughout the U. States, R. Riggs makes it known, that all the Banks of the District of Columbia pay their notes on demand in specie, and it would be much to the advantage of the merchants, and trading to the South and west, to encourage the circulation of the Notes of the Banks of Georgetown, Washington and Alexandria, as it will at all times answer for remittances to the large commercial and Atlantic towns;—all persons emigrating or travelling to the westward should be very particular and take the Notes of the Banks of the District of Columbia, as they will find them the most current, there being no counterfeits on the District Banks. The Merchants' Bank of Alexandria has long since failed—all persons should be on their guard, as they will be imposed on. August 18

Baltimore Hospital.
24th August, 1848. THE board of visitors have much pleasure in announcing to the public, that within the last eighteen months, a large and elegant addition has been made to this valuable institution, in the erection of the East wing of the building. This wing is 152 feet in length and 36 in width, with an extensive Southern projection at its extreme East end. It contains between 30 and 40 apartments, admirably calculated for the accommodation of every class of patients. Of this number are several large and airy wards, intended particularly for the reception of seamen, and well adapted to their various diseases. These different rooms and wards will be warmed by open fires, and by heated air thrown into them, from furnaces constructed on a safe and improved plan. Arrangements will also soon be made, for lighting the apartments in the entire building, with gas. The unwearied exertions of Doctors Mackenzie and Smyth, the attending Physicians of the Hospital, in their attention to the construction of the building, and their care of the sick, have given a character to this institution, which is now inferior to none in the United States. In the short space of six years, a most noble establishment has been erected—a thing without parallel in this country. It is well known, that above half a century has been consumed, in bringing the Hospitals of New-York and Philadelphia to their present size, and it is admitted by many gentlemen, who have visited these institutions, that the Hospital here, is by far the most extensive, the whole building being now 360 feet in length. The daily increase of the sick in the Hospital, renders it absolutely necessary that the new wing should be furnished; and every exertion is now making, to have it completed, before the cold weather shall set in. The visitors at their late meeting, examined the institution with much care—the apartments of the sick in the private infirmary—those in the lunatic asylum—and the wards of the sick and disabled seamen in the Marine Hospital—and they assent with confidence, that the sick and afflicted of every description are well accommodated and carefully attended. They have seen at their different meetings, the private patient comfortable; the wretched marine humanely taken care of; and the sailor, disabled by age, wounds and sickness, well provided with suitable medical assistance, and with every other comfort which his condition may require. Indeed the agreeable situation in which this very useful class of men are placed, does much credit, as well to the Director of the Marine Hospital, as to the attending Physicians, to whose immediate care they are entrusted. Every praise too, which the visitors can bestow, is due to Mr. & Mrs. Gatchel, the Stewart and Matron of the Hospital, for the neat and clean manner in which the House is uniformly kept, and for their care and attention to the administration of the internal economy of the establishment. Before they conclude this account of the Hospital, the visitors would invite the attention of their fellow citizens throughout the United States, to the Anatomical Cabinet of Wax Preparations, by Chiappi, which ever exhibited in this country; and will afford to those whose curiosity may lead them to see how "fearfully and wonderfully they are made," but more especially to the medical student, a fund of useful information. The Hospital is under the care of the following medical gentlemen: Doctors Colin Mackenzie, Attending James Smyth, Physicians. Dr. Horatio Gates Jameson, Attending Surgeon. Doctors George Brown John Coulter John Campbell White Solomon Birkhead John Cromwell Peter Chardard Ashton Alexander John Owen William Donaldson By order of the Board of Visitors, JOHN HILLEN, Sec'y. ABSCONDED from the subscriber's service, on Saturday night the 15th inst. Negro woman TREACE or TREACY—she is five feet two or three inches high, about 30 years of age, of a very dark complexion, and when particularly examined is very apt to confound herself.—It is deemed unnecessary to mention her clothing, as she has all of them with her, and being extremely artful, she no doubt will change them and endeavor to pass for a free woman. She is well acquainted in Charles county, Prince George's, Alexandria and the City, as about 5 years ago she made her escape, and was 6 or 7 months about the Lower Ferry, leading to Alexandria, and from thence to Washington City, where she acquired an extensive acquaintance among the Negroes belonging to John Brent, esq.; and the greater part of said Negroes belong now to William and Robert Brent, esqrs. and Mr. Dudley Digges. Negro Treace has a scar on the back part of her neck, occasioned by a scorpion put for the benefit of her eyes, which are very weak at this time. I will give 10 dollars if taken in the county and secured as aforesaid, so that I get her again, 25 dollars, and all reasonable charges paid if brought home. All persons are forewarned harboring or employing said Negro at their peril, as the law will be rigorously put in force against any offender. THOMAS BURGESS. Charles co. FrenchCreek Boarding School.
The following is published for the information of Parents: HAVING long believed that a School on a plan different from most others in many respects, would be beneficial to society, and apprehending that with all its cares, and the responsibility inseparable from such a concern, I could more cheerfully devote my time to the education of children than to any other business, I have concluded to establish a BOARDING SCHOOL for GIRLS.—With this view I have purchased the FARMER CHERRY FARM, four miles east of the yellow springs, on the Norristown and Philadelphia road, situated in Pike-land and Vincent townships, Chester county, twenty-seven miles from Philadelphia; combining many conveniences for the support of such an institution; and having let the farm, etc. in a way calculated to supply the family with provisions, I propose to devote my attention, with the aid of suitable assistants, to the education of the children who may be placed under my care. In selecting the pupils, it is not proposed to be governed entirely by their ages, nor to require that they shall be members of the religious society of Friends; but as the school rules will be very few in number and very simple, it is my wish that none may be sent contrary to their own inclination, nor any one who would not be likely to be good examples to the other scholars, and treat them with kindness and affection. The price for board and tuition will be two hundred Dollars per annum, the quarter always to be paid in advance.—no restrictions respecting the kind of clothing are intended, nor respecting the frequency of the changes that parents may require; the washing will be charged at the ordinary price per dozen.—children may be admitted for one quarter only, and such as are entered for a longer period, may nevertheless be re-admitted at the expiration of any quarter.—The communication with Philadelphia will be frequent and easy by stage, and a house of entertainment kept by the farmer for the accommodation of persons having business at the school. Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, English Grammar, Geography and the use of Maps and globes, will be taught, together with such other branches as the progress of the children and experience may render expedient. The school to open the first of the 5th month next. For further information apply to Edward Stabler, Alexandria, or to EMMOR KIMBER. 2d mo. 21 8dt

SONG BY LORD BYRON.

The following song, we are assured by respondent, on whose veracity we can rely, is the undoubted production of the noble Lord—and has only hitherto been circulated in M. S.

Will the goblet again for I never before Felt the glow that now gladdens my heart To its score,
Let us drink!—who would not?—since Thro' life's tried round, In the goblet alone no deception is found.

I have tried in its turn all that life can supply—I have bask'd in the beam of a dark ro-sine eye—I have loved!—who has not?—but what pleasure can declare, That pleasure existed while passion was there?

In the days of my youth—when the heart's In its spring,
And dreams that affection can never take wing;
I had friends!—who had not?—but what tongue will avow That friends, rosy wine, are so faithful as thou?

The breast of a mistress some boy may estrange;
Friendship shifts with the sunbeam—thou never canst change—Thou grow'st old!—who does not?—but on earth what appears Whose virtues, like thine, still increase with its years?

Yet, if blest to the utmost that love can bestow,
Should a rival bow down to our idol below,
We are jealous!—who's not?—thou hast no such alloy,
For the more that enjoy thee—the more they enjoy.

Then the season of youth and its varieties pass,
For refuge we fly to the goblet at last—There we find!—do we not?—in the flows of the soul,
That truth, as of yore, is confined to the bowl.

When the box of Pandora was opened on earth,
And misery's triumph commenced over Mirth; Hope was left!—was she not?—but the goblet we kiss,
And e'en not for hope who are certain of bliss.

Long life to the grape! for when summer is flown,
The age of our nectar shall gladden our own—
We must die!—who shall not?—may our sin be forgiven,
And Hebe shall never be idle in Heaven.

Curious Hypothesis.

We have spoken of a foolish enterprize of an American who proposes to go to the North Pole in order to discover a great office, by which he believes he could penetrate to the centre of the globe, where he imagines he could find habitable lands.—There is a German, Mr. Steinhauser, who announces in the Literary Gazette of Halle, a hypothesis of the same kind. To explain the variation of the magnetic needle, he supposes that, in the interior of our globe, at the depth of about 170 miles, there exists another small body which performs round the centre of the earth a revolution from west to east, in a period of 440 years. This small globe, endowed with a magnetic attraction, would be the cause of the variation of the magnetic needle. The calculations of Mr. Steinhauser appear to agree exactly with experience; he had predicted in 1805 that the needle would be for a time stationary, and at the present epoch would retrograde towards the east; which has in fact taken place.—He has given to his subterranean planet the name of Pluto. Mariners, according to Mr. Steinhauser, will have no more occasion to observe the celestial bodies, to guide them at sea—it will be sufficient for them to understand the motion of the Pluto, by observation of the magnetic variation.—These ideas, all extravagant as they appear, are not altogether new. Some persons have already, nearly a century since, imagined the hypothesis of a metallic or magnetic kernel in our globe.

[Paris paper.]

A boy asked Dr. Burgess, the preacher, "if he would have a light?" "No, child," said the Doctor, "I am one of the lights of the world." "I wish then," replied the boy, "you were hung up at the end of our alley, for it is a devilish dark one!"

The late Earl of Guilford being told that his large gouty shoes had been stolen.—"Well, well," said his lordship, with his usual pleasantry, "all the harm I wish the thief is, that the shoes may fit him."

ALEXANDRIA:
FRIDAY, OCTOBER 2, 1818.

Maj. Gen. Gaines passed thro' this place yesterday, on his way to Georgia. The general is immediately from Pensacola, and informs us that the utmost harmony existed among every class of citizens at that place; that so far from murmuring, the Spaniards who remained, found no fault whatever with the authority established by Gen. Jackson, and that an instance had not occurred in which a deviation had taken place from the true intent and meaning of the articles of capitulation entered into and ratified between Gen. Jackson and Don Masot, the late governor of that place. [St. Stephens Halcyon.]

We understand that three companies of mounted men, to wit: one under the immediate command of captain William F. Ware, who will have the direction of the whole; one under captain McGirt, and the third under captain Boyle, consisting of 3 and 400, are ordered to rendezvous at Claiborne in a few days, to scout the country from that place to Fort Jackson, and if possible, destroy a party of out lying Indians who infest the road more for the object of plunder than from a disposition to commit murder. It is pretty well ascertained that the Indians in East Florida are now disposed for peace, and that it only remains to break up the horde which frequent the road between this and Georgia, and which we understand has never attached itself to any party, but continued plundering during the short interval of peace which took place after the late British war, to put a termination to our trouble with the savages in this quarter. [Ibid.]

The following account of some important improvements in the art of printing, is from the patentee, Mr. T. C. Harsard, of London. [N. York Daily Advertiser.]

"The operation consists in the working off both forms (or sides) of a (single) sheet at one time, and with one impression, upon papers of double size, viz. double royal, demy, crown, post, foolscap, &c. by the means of a printing press of adequate dimensions; and by the same action, without any increase of labor, time or motion, at the moment the impression is given, it is divided into the usual size of single royal, demy, &c. and this with such undeviating precision of the line parallel to the pages, as no cutting by the most careful hand can ever attain to. The apparatus may be fixed at pleasure to a common royal size press, which may thus, upon the same principle, be made to work (and cut) double foolscap: the divisions may be carried still further for cutting into three, four, six, eight, &c. parts.

Another most important benefit gained by this plan, is that the work will admit of every graduation and quality of printing (with a proportional degree of saving) from the most economical to the most splendid, in paper, ink and workmanship; and that at no greater risk of making waste paper, spoiling the work, or giving short numbers, than the usual mode of the best press work.

The saving in the article of press-work, is computed to be, upon demy, crown, &c. from twenty to twenty-five per cent. upon foolscap, from thirty to forty per cent.

Another improvement, worthy of attention, is the patent Stereotype Plate Riser. The patent embraces some material improvements in the mode of blocking, or mounting stereotype plates to the necessary height for printing, by materials which can be instantly adapted either to the smallest or largest pages required: and which, although of little weight, will from their construction, effectually resist all pressure that can possibly be applied, that (supposing the plate once made perfect in uniform thickness) no possibility remains of one part ever printing fainter than another from any defect in the mounting; which is the usual case when wood (which will alternately expand or contract as more or less subjected to moisture) forms any material part of the apparatus. The profession will be supplied with this article of my patent, independent of the foregoing, at a trifling expense when compared with that of procuring the metal blocks commonly used. By the proper application of my risers, perpetual register is insured for the whole work, without the least trouble to the pressmen."

From the National Intelligencer.

Messrs. Gales & Son, I send you, for publication, an extract of a letter from the Rev. Ebenezer Burgess, the surviving agent of the American Colonization Society for exploring the west coast of Africa. It communicates the afflicting intelligence of the death of his colleague, the Rev. Sam. J. Mills. Mr. Mills was a native of New-England, and had devoted a number of years in promoting the objects of the benevolent and christian societies in our country. He had spent his life in their service, and had nearly exhausted a small patrimony which he possessed. A biographical sketch of Mr. Mills, by a competent hand, would not only be gratifying to his numerous friends, but seems peculiarly called for, from his distinguished zeal, his active benevolence, and the extensive usefulness of his short life.—I hope it will be furnished by some of his friends. The foundation of the disease which terminated his life, was laid some time before he left his country. The suspension of his complaint, whilst in Africa, so as to enable him to perform the arduous duties of his situation, gives a favorable view of the climate of that country, more especially as Mr. Mills, being a northern man, would be more liable to be affected by a tropical climate. The information derived from the commissioners of the Society, fully justify the expectation of its friends, that a situation can be procured for the proposed colony, safe, healthy, and fertile. There wants only the fostering aid of the government to carry the plans of the Society into full operation. It is hoped that the attention of a liberal and enlightened people will now be awakened; and that Congress will take a decided part and warm interest in support of the plans of the Society. The people are ready to support the government in any measure which may be adopted for that purpose. The people of color are daily becoming more favorable, as they begin to understand the subject, and officers of co-operation and support on their part, are frequently received from various parts of the country. A sufficient number have already offered their services to ensure the commencement of a respectable colony, whenever the necessary preparations are made for the first establishment.

Mr. Burgess arrived in London on the 25th of July, and may be daily expected in this country. I am, yours, &c.

Extract of a letter from the Rev. Ebenezer Burgess, one of the agents of the American Colonization Society, dated, "Brig Success, from Sierra Leone to London, English Channel, 16th July, 1818.

We were received with all civility in Sierra Leone. Gov. Macarthy was unfortunately absent on a visit to the Gambia; but the commandant, captain Appleton, the honorable chief justice Fitzgerald, and other gentlemen, by their kind attentions, supplied the loss. Our embassy gave great joy to many of the African colonists. We examined the schools and the public edifices, and some of the colonial towns. As might be expected, I was very happily disappointed in some things, and painfully in others. There surely has been rapid improvements in some respects, within a few years, and the present prospects of the colony are good. "Rome was not built in a day."

Once more we spread our maps before us, and with all our stock of African knowledge, to which I am happy to assure you that books, conversation or reflection, had added something every day since our departure from America, together with the advice and observation of gentlemen who had traded on many parts of the coast, we drew conclusions and made our arrangements.

There are few bays on the Gold coast.—At the European forts and trading stations, ships usually anchor off in the roads, a few leagues from the shore. All goods are landed in boats and African canoes, which are often overset in the surf—ships, however, seldom sustain injury, because there are no strong winds except the tornadoes, which continue only a few hours, and always give seasonable warning of their approach.

Even for a settlement purely agricultural, it seems indispensable to have a river, harbour, or bay, in the vicinity, where necessary supplies may be brought, and surplus produce exported.

In eight days after we reached Sierra Leone, having made the best arrangements which circumstances would allow, we were in readiness for an excursion down the coast of the country of Sherbro. We took with us Messrs. John Kizell and William Martin, as interpreters, besides the pilot, captain and men of the little schooner in which we sailed. We called on Mr. Thomas Calkers, head man of the Berrara Islands, who embraced our objects with such cordiality, that he commissioned two of his chief men to go with us and speak his mind in the councils of the Sherbro. We next called on his nephew, George Calkers, head man of the Plantain Islands. We then proceeded to Sherbro and held consultations with the kings and head men of the country. We were always treated with civility and kindness: we made general surveys of the bay, islands, rivers, adjacent country, taking specimens of the rice, cotton, sugar cane, &c. with the entire approbation of Kings and head men, notwithstanding temporary apprehensions. These children of nature have had intercourse only with the worst class of white men, and have learned to distrust any profession of humanity or benevolence. I have only to say at present, that, if the free people of colour of the United States, are disposed to remove to Sherbro, there are great tracts of uncultivated land which may be purchased at a moderate price, and that if they behave well, they may live there with the most perfect safety.

We were engaged on this excursion about six weeks. After our return to Sierra Leone, we finished our enquiries in that colony, and became satisfied that there was no sufficient reason for our wasting the rainy months on the coast, and that we could do more with advantage to promote the objects of the American Society: we should have been happy to be called directly to the United States, but, as there was no American ship in the vicinity, we improved the only opportunity which offered; and took passage for England in the brig Success: we did not regret this circumstance greatly, as there appeared to be some definite reasons for visiting England.

When taking our last views of the African continent, which, for the sake of others, we had so earnestly desired to see, we rendered thanks to God, and expressed our congratulations to each other, that the principal labours and dangers of our embassy were now past. The nature of the climate, and the unknown circumstances in which we might be placed, were subjects of mature reflection before we left our country. Our minds were prepared to meet dangers, and endure trials, which, through divine goodness, never occurred. Our prospect appeared fair to return to our country, and see the face of our friends in peace.

But the period of that event now approaches—"respecting which neither my duties to you, nor the sensibilities of my heart, will allow me to say with coldness, it has happened so." Our embassy, however humane in its designs, however successful in its execution, and however extensive or beneficial in its future consequences, is now obscured with the veil of mourning—it will occasion sorrow where there might have been joy, and I fear discouragement and despondence, where there should be activity and perseverance—all is right.

The health of my colleague before he left the U. S. was slender—having a stricture on the lungs, and a dangerous cough. In England, it being winter he complained much of the humidity of the atmosphere. On the Atlantic, and during the whole time of our residence on the African coast, he enjoyed perfect health, and was active in business every day.

With great respect, dear sir, your obedient servant, E. BURGESS.

Elias B. Caldwell, Esq. Secretary of the American Colonization Society."

ANECDOTE OF GENERAL PUTNAM.
During the late war, when Gen. Amherst was marching across the Country of Canada, the army coming to one of the Lakes, which they were obliged to pass, found the French had a vessel of 12 guns on it.—Gen. Amherst was in great distress; his boats were no match for her, and she alone was capable of sinking his whole army if embarked. While the General was pondering what to do, Putnam came up to him, and said: "That ship must be taken." Aye, said Amherst, I would give the world she was. I'll secure her, says Putnam. Amherst smiled and asked how? Give me some wedges and a few men of my own choice. Amherst could not conceive how an armed vessel was to be conquered by 4 or 5 men, and a few wedges. However he granted Putnam's request. When night came, Putnam with his materials and men went in a boat under the vessel's stern, and in an instant put in the wedges behind the rudder, in the cavity between the rudder and lip, and escaped. In the morning, she got under weigh, the rudder could not be moved; much confusion was observed on board; the sails were seen fluttering; she was adrift in the Lake, and being presently blown ashore was easily captured.

Lexington at Public Sale.
On THURSDAY, October 15, if fair, if not, the next fair day, will be offered at public sale, on the premises, Lexington.

THIS estate, containing two thousand three hundred and fifty acres, more or less, being one half of the well known tract of land commonly called "Mason's Neck," situated on the Potomac, in the county of Fairfax, Virginia, is now offered for sale.
About two-thirds of it is covered with an uncommon heavy growth of white and black oak, hickory, pine, poplar, &c. near the water's edge, whence it may be transported to the markets of the district of Columbia, (a distance of 20 miles only) where timber and fuel are always in demand, and without the expense and risk encountered in conveying those articles from situations further down the river; the remainder is in cultivation, and furnished with every necessary building for that purpose; together with orchards and a blacksmith's shop. The out- or improvements are a spacious and elegant dwelling-house, kitchen, dairy, smoke-house, office, icehouse, a well of excellent water, and a filling garden, of the most tasteful and costly design, filled with the rarest and most beautiful shrubbery and flowers, exotic and indigenous, all situated on an eminence, commanding a view of the rest of the tract, which extends in an uninterrupted plain from the foot of the eminence to the Potomac and Occoquan, by which it is so far bounded as to render the expense of enclosing it comparatively nothing. The prospect, moreover, of the surrounding country, diversified in every direction by sheets of water, is a beautiful beyond description. There is likewise attached to this estate four valuable

Shad & Herring Fisheries: however, the subscriber intends to reserve one of them and a few acres of land. The woods abound with deer in such numbers, that with a little care a gentleman might command a constant supply of venison for his table; and besides the large streams abovementioned, the various creeks and rivers that every where intersect the land are covered in the proper season with wild fowl of every description known in our waters.
When to all these advantages is added the great natural fertility of the land, which is not exceeded perhaps in the western country, its adaptation to improvement by the use of plaster, which has been proved by experiment, its vicinity to society, to market, to two manufacturing grist-mills, to which the distance of conveyance by land and water is not more than 5 or 6 miles, it may with truth be pronounced the most valuable estate, of the same extent, in the whole range of country watered by the Potomac.
It will be sold entire or divided to suit purchasers.

The terms of sale will be one-third of the purchase money in hand, the remaining 2-3ds in two equal annual payments, with interest from the day of sale, secured by a deed of trust on the land—which will be shown in my absence to any person disposed to purchase, by Mr. William Alston or Mr. Weston, residing on the premises.

Gunston for Sale.
THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria —it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Potobick creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided in requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaster acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania.—I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity.
A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles; on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain being exported on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole; it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary outhouse, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit.
More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvas backs, the woods with deer, and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensils and household furniture can be had.
The terms of sale will be accommodating.
Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to me at Potobick Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.
September 4. GEORGE MASON.

FIFTY DOLLARS REWARD.
I WILL give the above reward for apprehending and lodging in any jail in the District of Columbia, a person by the name of JOHN POST, a Bricklayer and Stonemason, who has been at work for about two months past at Fort Washington, and was discharged on the 7th of September inst.— He says he was born in the state of New-York; is about 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high, and has sandy hair; he had with him an apprentice boy, nearly grown. A few days previous to his leaving Fort Washington he took the liberty of borrowing, in the name of Mr. John Cohagen, from a lady at that place 15 dollars, which was not known till after he left it, and immediately after he was discharged and paid off, he forged two checks in the name of the Subscriber, on the Farmers' Bank of Alexandria, one of which he procured the money for at the Bank, and the other he passed to a person in Alexandria, which was detected and refused.—Previous to his coming to Fort Washington, he worked in the City of Washington, where he said he intended to work again; but it is probable he has not stopped so near the theatre of his villany.
Persons are cautioned against being imposed on by him. BOLI'BA LAWS.

BILL IN CHANCERY.
Robert Perry

James B. Dunnington, Robert Dunning-ton, Francis Taylor and Elizabeth B. his wife, James Bloxham and Catherine his wife, William Simmons and Esther his wife, heirs of William Dunnington.
THE Complainant alleged in his bill that the Respondents have in possession the real estate of their deceased father Wm. Dunnington, whose personal estate was not sufficient for the payment of his debts. Wm. Dunnington's estate is indebted to the complainant in a large sum of money. The object of the bill is to procure a decree for the sale of the land, for the payment of the debts remaining unpaid by the personal estate.
Some of the heirs of Wm. Dunnington are non-residents. It is thereupon, at motion of the Complainant, ordered that he cause a copy of this order to be inserted in the Alexandria Gazette for the space of three months, to the intent that the absent defendants may have notice of this application, and of the subject and object of the bill, and may be warned to appear in this court in person or by a solicitor, to show cause, if any there be, wherefore a decree should not pass as prayed. Tests.

PROPOSALS,
By Gideon Fairman, John Binns and Charles S. Parker, to PUBLISH A Splendid Edition of Washington's Farewell Address, To the People of the United States.
THE world has seen enough of warriors and of Heroes—enough of Statesmen—of men who have guided Armies in the field, or dictated as Sages in the Cabinet, for the exclusive purpose of Ambition. History from its earliest page to the present day, has offered to our contemplation, only ONE WASHINGTON, but ONE MAN, whose dangers in war, and labors in peace, were undertaken and supported with a single eye, to the benefit of his country; whose wonderful and honorable success, was the plain result of wisdom in design, and valour in execution; whom danger never appalled, nor defeat depressed; who, persevering in the justice of his causes, wonderful Victory till he won her: who covetted no reward but the well earned approbation of those whose interest he lived to promote: who renounced all public honors, when they ceased to be the necessary instruments of good to the people, whose gratitude confirmed them: who superior to all Monarchs, was content to be called the American Citizen. His career of glory, through life, was unstained by crime; and his death was felt as a loss by every individual of that community, whose political existence was the fruit of his exertions.

THE FAREWELL ADDRESS OF General Washington is the condensed result of long experienced, matured reflection and strong anxiety for the permanent prosperity of his country. His advice concerning the great importance of maintaining indissolubly the Federal Union: the danger of indulging too much in party feelings:— the necessity of supporting public credit at home:—of maintaining public faith in all our transactions with foreign nations: of encouraging foreign intercourse free from foreign attachments:—are so many lessons of prudence which we should do well to bear in constant remembrance. Why therefore should not his legacy of wisdom and affection, be so published, as to admit of being constantly before our eyes? An ornament to our apartments, while it serves as a memento to guide our public feelings, and to manifest that the author lives in our memories?

To make it such, is the aim of the proposed Edition.
The Publishers are determined that the Address shall be printed on paper of the same quality and size as the splendid edition of the Declaration of Independence now engraving, & shall in all respects be a companion worthy that great State paper.

As errors are known from various causes to find their way into the most important writings, the publishers feel it their duty, not only to satisfy themselves, but to satisfy the public, of the authenticity of the copy from which this splendid Edition of the Farewell Address shall be published.

MR. GEORGE FAIRMOR will complete the Design; of which the following is an outline:—The introductory part of the Address, in highly finished ornamental penmanship, shall form the upper part—the other parts of the plate, shall be appropriate ornaments;—in the centre below shall be engraved, from an historical design for this publication by Mr. Sully the Surrender of the British Army at York-town, October 19, 1781.

The Address itself shall be printed with type of a peculiar and a propi-ate character, designed for this purpose by Mr. Fairman, and to be cut and cast by our best artists. No more of the type shall be cast than will be necessary to execute this Address: & when it shall be completed, the type and the matrices in which it was cast shall be utterly destroyed; so that no other work shall ever be executed by the same letter which shall have printed the "FAREWELL ADDRESS" of him who lived and died, first in War; first in Peace, and first in the hearts of his Countrymen.

The paper, of the first quality, 36 by 26 inches, will be made by Mr.
Ames. The ink shall be carefully prepared, and of the best materials.
The signature of General Washington from which it is proposed to execute a fac simile for this publication, is that which he affixed to the Constitution of the United States, when he signed it as President of the Convention in which it was framed; Thus associating and concentrating some of the greatest events in the life of this great man and in the history of his Country.

The ornamental writing will be designed and executed in the very best manner; the ornamental parts of the design and vignette, will be engraved by G. FAIRMOR: and the Typographical part executed by John Binns.
They will take especial care of the execution of their several duties in this respect, and they will call to their aid, all that liberality, zeal and industry can command from the Sciences and Arts; so as to make the "Farewell Address" no mean specimen of the state of the Fine Arts in the United States.

As much progress has already been made in designing and procuring materials for this splendid edition of Gen. Washington's "Farewell Address," it is expected it will be ready for delivery, with the Splendid Edition of the Declaration of Independence, in the month of December next.
That the public may have a more perfect view of the design and style of execution, than can be given in a proposal, of this Tribute to the memory of him who was "a Conqueror for the Freedom of his Country! A Legislator for its Security! A Magistrate for its Happiness," it is not intended to solicit any Subscriptions until the Ornamental parts of the plate shall be executed. It will then be submitted for public inspection and public patronage, at five dollars a Copy, payable on the delivery of the Engraving. Philadelphia, July 31.
